On reflection, many of the selected writings are actually speeches between 1920 and 1924, either from Liberty Hall or one of the International conventions the UNIA held, although this inevitably narrows the scope and context of the writings, they are still able to broadly capture Garvey's philosophies. Many of his newspaper editorials are not inclu

Selected Writings

And Speeches Of

Abraham Lincoln

Edited by G. Edgar Reynolds

Lincoln shows the inside of one of the greatest Americans ever, through his letters and speeches. It shows his thinking before attempts at legislation. A wonderful man well before his time. I rated the book four stars because some of the letters are mundane and could have been left out for a tighter picture.
