Baptism is the sign of initiation into the visible new covenant community. The Baptizer had promised this day (Matt 3:11). Water baptism is a sign to all and seal to believers of that reality. It is, as Paul says in Romans 6:3,4 and Colossians 2:11-12, a sign and seal of our identification with Christ. Just as circumcision did not create the reality it signified so baptism signifies and seals without creating the reality.
