Shards (Clan Lasombra Trilogy #1) by Bruce Baugh

The first book, Shards, is an interesting picture of how Lucita operates as an assassin among the most powerful beings on the planet and still lives. It also showed her being run to ground, and how they did it, which is also fun to read. This isn't a fast-paced fighting book, but it's engaging and develops Lucita a lot.

I was really disappointed with the Tremere Clan Trilogy!! Aisling Sturbridge is one of my favorite characters in Vampire the Masquerade, and I really looked forward to reading the trilogy. What a let-down. The story is weak, with not much mention of blood magic or thaumaturgy, and the storyline about " the children down the well " is ridiculous.
